PRACTICES & ACTIONS TO CREATE RESILIENCE

4th Sunday of each month

"This is a unique moment in human evolution:
After tens of thousands of years of stories that we are separate,
we are finally beginning to develop stories of "all of us."

With the old stories breaking down, and new stories not yet in place, the world is uniquely open to discovering "Great Transition Stories" that can guide humanity through our time of profound transition to a sustainable and thriving future."
